Dear Joe:

We will be quite pleased to provide a speaker to address your students on the subject of "Foreign Intelligence Agencies" on 11 March 1951 as requested in your letter of 18 November. I cannot determine finally at this time whether Mr. William E. Harvey will be available for this purpose, but I can assure you that the individual designated will be well qualified in his subject. We will send you the name of the designated speaker within the next ten days.

The opportunity to assist in the instruction of your students is very much appreciated.

Sincerely,

15/
Bedell
